Overcoming Inequalities in a Fractured World: Between Elite Power and Social Mobilization

UNRISD International Conference
7–9 November 2018

PRELIMINARY PROGRAMME
Background
The roundtable will bring together thought leaders, influencers and advocates for change to discuss the growing influence of elite power and the deepening of global inequalities, and what can be done to counteract these trends. Key questions are: How did we arrive at this moment in which the richest 1% of the population holds half of the world's wealth? What kinds of fractures has this extreme concentration of wealth wrought, be they economic, political, cultural, social, spatial, or environmental? And what space is there for progressive change in a context where those in power work to preserve the systems from which they benefit?

Speakers

- Naila Kabeer, London School of Economics
- Jomo Kwame Sundaram, Institute of Strategic and International Studies
- Saskia Sassen, Colombia University

Opening Remarks

- Jonas Pontusson, Professor, UNIGE
- Paul Ladd, Director, UNRISD

Moderator

Imogen Foulkes, BBC
