Immerse yourself in the hidden digital cleaning industry, which rids the Internet of content deemed inappropriate. This serious-minded, accessible and compelling documentary is admirably measured but unafraid to show disturbing content, or ask some searching questions. Who controls what we see and what we think? What is acceptable and who decides? Discover the controversies at the intersection of human rights and new technologies.

The screening will be followed by a discussion with

Ms Dorothée Baumann-Pauly
Research Director and Expert on Business and Human Rights, New York University and HEC Lausanne

Mr Jacques de Werra
Professor, Université de Genève

Mr IlCheong Yi
Senior Research Coordinator, UNRISD

Moderator: Ms Catherine Frammery
Journalist and Digital Expert, Le Temps

Free entrance. Seating on a first-come, first-served basis.

For more information or to receive our alerts, send a message to: cineONU@unog.ch